Mrs. Shepard National President American Legion Auxiliary

Miss Copeland Gets Decision In Her Favor In Ranch Suit

GLEN ELLEN WOMAN WINS HONOR AT THE OMAHA CONVENTION

Handsome Majority Accorded Jack London's Sister In Competition With Six Other Candidates.

A telegram received at the Jack London ranch yesterday bore the happy tidings that Mrs. Eliza Shepard, esteemed Glen Ellen resident, had been elected national president of the American Legion Auxiliary at the convention in Omaha, Nebraska. Mrs. Shepard won out over six candidates and was given a handsome majority.

The newly elected president of all the American Legion women's organizations in the United States is past president of the California Auxiliary and has made a notable record here in World War veterans' work.

Her choice is a decided honor for this state and will tend to bring Sonoma Valley to the fore as the site of the proposed American Legion orphan's home at Buena Vista, which she so earnestly advocates.

PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. FRANCIS CHURCH

Wedding bells rang out last Saturday morning at St. Francis church for Anne Loretta Dowdall, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dowdall, of El Verano, and Anthony Thomas Sousa, of Alameda. The church, which had been very prettily decorated by Mrs. Emparan and Mrs. Cereghino, old friends of the family, was thronged with friends and relatives of the happy young couple.

The ceremony was most impressive and was performed by Rev. Father O'Connell, who 27 years ago married the groom's father and mother. He was assisted at the altar by Rev. Father Byrne, and the clergymen were attended by two altar boys, Jersey bull, a gift of the Jack London Willie and Clarence Dowdall, brothers of the bride. Miss Irene Dowdall was bridesmaid and John Dowdall, best man. Nick Dowdall gave his daughter into the keeping of the groom as the impressive ceremony uniting the young people was concluded.

The bride was becomingly attired in a lovely white georgette crepe gown trimmed in seed pearls. She wore the conventional bridal veil and carried a bouquet of white roses, gardenias and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid looked very attractive in yellow georgette with becoming white picture hat.

During the ceremony Mrs. N. J. Heggie played the Lohengrin wedding march and Mrs. M. Spread sang "O Promise Me." James Kearney, uncle of the bride, also sang, and there was a violin solo by Norman Heggie.

Following the beautiful services at the church, the wedding party, amid a shower of rice, motored to the home of the bride, where 70 invited guests, including out of town relatives and friends, enjoyed a sumptuous repast. The Dowdall home had been beautifully decorated by Mrs. Heggie and her daughter, Beatrice. A floral wedding bell hung over the bride's table. (Continued on Page Five)

Listen, George Hoyle Now Has The Big Head

District Attorney George Hoyle, of Santa Rosa, affable and genial prosecutor, is wearing the same smile and the same hat as of yore, but he is said by an authority to have the big head. One wouldn't suspect it from looking at him, or from hearing him orate in court, but go into the back yard of his home in Santa Rosa and you will discover the truth. Hoyle's prize lettuce tells the story. It seems that George is an understudy of Luther Burbank and his big heads of lettuce are the talk of the town. When you see Sonoma county's dirt farmer district attorney, ask him about it.

FIRE DEPT. BARN DANCE NETS $400

One of the most successful dances in years at Glen Ellen was the big benefit barn dance given at Pancrazi's auditorium last Saturday night for the Glen Ellen volunteer fire department. The people of the entire upper valley responded nobly and there were also many present from Sonoma, Santa Rosa and Kenwood. They came from way up in the canyons and from the hills and valleys. Everyone was there anxious to "do their bit" for the good cause.

The hall had been decorated in rustic fashion, the autumn foliage of the grape vine and the loveliest of evergreen being combined. The letters, G. E. V. F. D., wrought in grape leaves, made an effective background for the orchestra, led by Les Perkins, the jazz artist. Fire Chief Bryant was on hand to greet the guests and was ably assisted by Julius Pancrazi and others. Dan Friedger was at the door.

After a number of dances, the announcement was made that the prize were attended by two altar boys, Jersey bull, a gift of the Jack London Willie and Clarence Dowdall, brothers of the bride. Miss Irene Dowdall was bridesmaid and John Dowdall, best man. Nick Dowdall gave his daughter into the keeping of the groom as the impressive ceremony uniting the young people was concluded.

At midnight supper was served at the Pancrazi annex, after which dancing continued until a late hour. The fire department wishes to thank all for their support and co-operation in making the affair a success.

SONOMA DRIVER JAILED

Irving Brusky, who gave his residence as Sonoma, was arrested on Main street on Tuesday at noon by Traffic Officer Floyd Drake, and was charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated. He was placed in the city jail to await his release on bail on the serious charge.

Mont Akers was given a dinner by Miss Dutton here Sunday in honor of his 84th birthday. His son Steve was here to congratulate him.

J. D. Ehlers has been enjoying a much needed vacation. Mr. Ehlers is head of the poultry project department at the Sonoma State Home.

City Trustees Reveal Their Plan To Avert Outside Sale Of Famous Supply

That Sonoma City is considering the submission of a municipal water election to the people and acquisition of the Emparan system, was revealed at the October meeting of the city trustees when City Engineer R. C. Specht reported that he had acted upon the suggestion of the Board and interviewed the city attorney relative to the water proposition. The city attorney advised the municipality to act now if it was the intent to take over the Emparan supply.

It was stated that the Emparans are willing to sell, are not tied up with an option by the concern which contemplates a merger here and would be free to deal with the City of Sonoma in the matter. If the new water company sells sufficient stock in the proposed water and irrigation company to buy out the Emparans, Sonoma would ultimately have to institute condemnation proceedings if it ever wanted the water. Definite steps toward municipal ownership went over to a future meeting. Attorney A. R. Grinstead asked a quit claim deed from the city to the Sonoma Valley Bank property now owned by the Liberty Bank of San Francisco.

Manager R. W. Garrison of the California Telephone and Light Company asked the trustees to make formal application for four new street lights which the city desires placed. Ordinance No. 165 had its third reading and was passed to print. Ordinance No. 167, designating the marshal's salary and doing away with certain fees, was read for the first time. P. Lembeye offered the city 100 yards of dirt to fill in the Plaza and his offer was accepted. City Engineer Specht reports conditions very poor at the sewer farm. A test of the ground revealed that there was little gravel formation through which the sewage should filter in order to be properly purified. The sewer matter was discussed at length, but on this, as on the water problem, the board procrastinated despite the fact that a big damage suit is imminent from a property owner who alleges he has seriously suffered as a result of Sonoma's faulty system of sewage disposal.

MRS. BUTLER HOSTESS AT BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. Fred Butler, wife of the medical superintendent at Eldridge, gave a beautifully appointed bridge luncheon last Saturday. Miss Eileen Cowan assisted in receiving. Many out of town guests were present, including friends of Mrs. Inez Freedman, of Santa Rosa, who was joint hostess. The decorations were begonias and marigolds. The menu was most delicious.

Winners at bridge were Mrs. J. W. Spear, Mrs. Frank Welti and Mrs. R. Wolfshell of Suisun. Mrs. Frank Wood made high score at Mah Jongg.

Vocal selections by some of the talented guests were greatly enjoyed by the ladies.

THOMAS TIERNEY BUYS A STORE AT PRESTON

Thomas Tierney, who has been a popular employee of A. Monotti for some time past, is leaving Sonoma to take over a general store and the post office at Preston, near Cloverdale, in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Tierney will be wished the greatest success in their new home and business.

Mr. Tierney has been registered at McCray's, Cloverdale, while making the purchase of the new concern and getting ready to assume his new duties as post master.

Miss Ethel Revie, who recently underwent an operation is doing nicely at the General Hospital, Santa Rosa.

Club Gives Popular Bride Jolly Shower

Mrs. Joe Ryan, nee Jessie Hiser, was guest of honor at one of the jolliest showers of the year Wednesday afternoon of this week. The affair was given by the Flying Needles, of which Mrs. Ryan is an esteemed member. The Rae Hunter home was the scene of the party and about 20 members participated.

Mrs. Ryan was told upon her arrival that she must again go through a marriage ceremony in order to satisfy the club that she was well married. A burlesque ceremony was then gone through with, after the bride had been dressed up to the satisfaction of the committee, her costume being completed with a lace curtain veil and a bouquet of Swiss chard tied with maceline. To the strains of a wedding march she was then ushered into the spacious living room where, to her consternation and surprise the groom (Pearl Hunter) and the minister (Mrs. Erasmus) awaited her. The groom wore a black cut-away wedding suit with white satin vest and high collar. "He" also had a Derby hat and wore a huge star on which the word "sheriff" was conspicuously displayed. Iron rings were exchanged and the bride presented with an impressive scroll, a certificate of the marriage, with the names of all present as witnesses.

Following the "ceremony" a handsome coffee percolator was presented to Mrs. Ryan by the club and there were many gifts from individual members of the club.

Mrs. Hunter then hospitably entertained the "bridal party" and friends at a lovely repast. The dining room was in pink and white and strawberries and cream and a mammoth bride's cake carried out the color scheme. Mrs. Ryan, wife of Sonoma county's sheriff, was heartily felicitated by the group of friends who arranged the delightful affair in her honor and the afternoon terminated with a shower of good wishes.

Sonoma Apple Growers Did Well This Year

The Apple Growers' Association of Sonoma Valley received more money this year for their apples than last. Members are in receipt of their checks and are pleased that their shipments averaged $1.77 net per box as against $1.13 last year. While the crop was short in Sonoma Valley, due to unseasonable rain the Growers sent out 18 cars of apples, compared to 21 in 1924. The overhead was smaller this year than last, due to good management and to the fact that work went on uninterrupted at the packing house, where the apples came in with regularity from the first to the last of the harvest.

LARSEN-DANIELI WEDDING TONIGHT

A wedding of interest to many friends, both here and in Petaluma, will take place tonight (Saturday) when Miss Louise Larsen, popular and handsome Sonoma Valley girl, will be married to Joe Danieli, of a pioneer El Verano family.

The ceremony will be performed at the parochial residence of St. Francis church. The young couple will be attended by Miss Ann Ricard, of Petaluma, a cousin of the bride, and Charles Danieli, brother of the groom. Following the ceremony there will be a reception at the Ricard home in Petaluma.

Miss Larsen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Larsen of Lovall Valley, and is a girl of many amiable traits of character and domestic accomplishments. She is prominent in the Native Daughters of the Golden West and is a typical daughter of California.

Mr. Danieli holds a good position in Petaluma, where he is highly regarded and where he has provided a home for his bride.

The Index-Tribune wishes them every happiness.

NEW SOCIAL CLUB'S ENJOYABLE DANCE

The recently organized Cotillion Club gave a very enjoyable dance on Thursday evening at the Woman's Club house. Decorations were autumn foliage and fantastic jack-o-lanterns. The affair was a hard times party and many comical and effective costumes symbolic of the occasion were noted.

The hit of the evening was made by a Weary Willie, tattered and footsore. Overall, grain sacks, and food stockings of various hues and shoestrings of rope and string, bandana handkerchiefs, gingham and calico were all in evidence.

(Music by Perkins' orchestra was par excellence and the hospitality committee consisting of Mesdames Dreschel, Pauli and G. Rubke provided an appetizing hard times menu at tables decorated in lanterns of colorful pumpkins. About 25 couples were present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Echert of Sonoma Vista have returned from Europe.

JUDGE THOMPSON RENDERS DECISION FOR DEFENDANT

Sonoma Dressmaker's Half Interest In Watt Ranch Held To Be Valid By the Court.

Miss Octavia Copeland, for many years a well known dressmaker of Sonoma, won the suit recently brought by R. L. Watt of Schellville, to regain possession of land which had been deeded to him by his aunt, the late Sarah Ellen Watt, who later revoked the deed and gave the property to Miss Copeland, a cousin. Watt's uncle and namesake, Richard Watt, requested that upon the death of his widow the half share in the 18 acre Watt Ranch should go to his nephew Dick Watt. The widow carried out his request, but changed her mind subsequently, destroyed a deed she had made and conveyed the property to her cousin, Octavia Copeland, with whom she made her home.

Watt declares that she tearfully acknowledged to him that the original deed had been destroyed and a new one made.

Upon her death Watt sought to set aside the second deed by carrying the matter into court. Many witnesses were called and Judge Thompson took the testimony under consideration, rendering his decision early this week.

The Santa Rosa Republican said of the disposal of the case:

"Holding that there was no valid delivery of a deed to Sonoma real estate from Sarah Ellen Watt to her nephew, Richard L. Watt, Superior Judge R. L. Thompson gave judgment for the defendant in the action brought by Richard L. Watt against Octavia Copeland, in which he sought to secure the return of the land which he claimed had been deeded to him.

"The action grew out of a deed drawn by Sarah Ellen Watt in 1911, in which she deeded her one-half interest in Sonoma acreage to her nephew, Richard L. Watt. Her attorney, Robert Poppe, drew the deed, which was enclosed in an envelope on which was written 'Deed from Sarah Ellen (Continued on Page Five)'

HOW BROAD AND FEARLESS IS PRESIDENT COOLIDGE

President Coolidge created a furor when he addressed the American Legion National Convention, Tuesday and went on record against intolerance and national bigotry, arrogance and selfishness. The President spoke our fearlessly when he stated that church and state must forever be separated, and he won the greatest plaudits when he proclaimed the equality of all Americans, whether they traced their ancestry back to the Mayflower or recalled the trip of their folks in the steerage from Europe just a few years since. He declared that the immigrant boys fought in the war the same as old line Americans and are a part of the backbone of this nation. Their rights and creeds were to be respected, he averred. While he did not mention the K. K. K. by name, it is admitted that the President flayed the spirit which actuates that secret organization.

Lauding the speech most highly are the Hearst papers, which suddenly are strong for the Republican who is to be a candidate at the next Presidential election, probably against Governor Al Smith, of New York, arch-enemy of Hearst. In order to strengthen the President's position and deflect from Al Smith's avowed platform of tolerance and liberalism, the "monarch of the dailies" is now roaring for Coolidge.

We admire President Coolidge's frank statement to the American Legion. It sounds as though he would lead us out of the present wilderness. If he will go a step farther, he can be the leader all true Americans will acclaim. With his constructive statesmanship and courageous opinions, a sane declaration on "dry" conditions will make him the man of the hour. He should declare himself for modification in this prohibition mess. When the next Congress convenes there is a chance on this burning question for the President to put himself on record in a big way. Let him give Congress sane guidance and if he speaks his true mind, a mind we believe fair and broad, he will tell the representatives of the people again that "America can make little contribution to the welfare of humanity on the theory that we are a superior people and all others are inferior people."

Then we will cease to set ourselves up as a law abiding, temperate nation while all the while making a colossal show of our hypocrisy and intolerance. Will President Coolidge put himself on record? He must either declare for modification or be inconsistent in his economy preachment, and inconsistent on the sentiment expressed at the convention of the American Legion. All liberal minded Americans wait for him to speak.

SAN FRANCISCO DOUBTS SHORTRIDGE

(San Francisco Daily News)

Perish the thought that the impeccable and vocal Senator Samuel Shortridge is to be listed in the Jekyll and Hyde category. And yet it is learned from Dr. Briggs, of the Anti-Saloon League, that the long-legged and long-sentenced statesman has been howling virtues from the pedestals and, at the same time, doing naughty anti-prohibitionary things in the seclusion and quiet of his private office. Indeed, the frank Doctor accuses the loquacious solon of being not only responsible for the failure of prohibition in this golden clime, but of having brought about the removal of Captain Goff.

It's a weird story indeed. Those of us who have loved Senator Sam so ardently that we have, time and again nerved ourselves to listen while he filled the ambient air with well-rounded nothings, cannot believe there is anything to him but extended utterance. Indeed, it is quite impossible to visualize him as sitting quietly in a private office and telling, in a few crisp but pregnant words, the personification of the Volstead law and the Eighteenth Amendment where to head in or out. No chance for a speech—no chance to tickle the rafters or make the eagle soar! Why, it is fantastic, that's all.

And yet circumstances compel the admission that it may be true. Something has done something to somebody for a certainty. Goff is out and prohibition is not looking so well hereabouts. Perhaps virtue did skid when no eye was there to see. But isn't it awful to have information chucked at you that sanctity shamelessly sits enmasque upon a highbrow that throbs with evil? It sure is.

NEW BUILDING AT ELDRIDGE TO COST $65,000

Ground was broken at the Sonoma State Home last week for erection of another new building to accommodate 120 inmates. The building will cost $65,000, which was appropriated by the legislature this year. A new dormitory for 40 persons has been added to the Seelight cottage in the hills above the institution which heretofore housed only 25. The 40 who will occupy the dormitory will be men and boys who till the farm, cut the wood and do all the general work on the farm.

The rewiring of the main buildings for electric lights is still in progress. This work is to cost in the neighborhood of $25,000. A system of street lighting at the institution has long been needed and is now being installed in conjunction with the other work.

Reconstruction of the dairy barns is also nearing completion. The dairy supplies all the milk for the Home and is to be increased so that it will make all the butter needed for the inmates. It is the aim of the present administration to make the place self-supporting.

FLOWERS AS WELL AS FRUIT HARVESTED HERE

The grape harvest is not the only one which has been a bounteous one in Sonoma Valley the past two weeks. The gladioli crop on the Diener bulb farm proclaims that this is verily the land of sunshine, fruit and flowers. A magnificent yield of bulbs has followed the wealth of flowers which the former Murphy ranch produced this year under the wizardry of the new owner, Richard Diener.

Owing to the extra large yield on the rich Sonoma land, which Mr. Diener's superintendent, Mr. Hayward, has been cultivating, the prices this year on several of the most expensive varieties of gladioli have been lowered. The new advance price list is out and will be mailed upon application to anyone interested in the Diener creations.

Eighteen men and women have been busy digging the gladioli bulbs here the past 10 days, separating them, curing, sorting and packing them for shipment. Interest in the flowers is nation wide and Mr. Diener is attracting the attention of old world floriculturists on account of the startling beauty of his varieties.

ATTENDED OPERA IN SAN FRANCISCO

A number of Sonoma Valley people attended the opera in San Francisco last Saturday. Mrs. L. H. Golton, Miss Pemberton, Miss Florence Murphy, Mrs. E. Clements and Mrs. R. Hotz went down for "Manon" and "Aida."

REBEKAH CARD PARTY

Verdant Rebekah Lodge had a nice crowd at the usual card party Thursday evening. Lucky whist players were Mrs. Pearl Hunter, first prize; Ernest Coates, first prize; Mrs. Rose Pinelli, consolation and special prize, and Bert Kerner, consolation.

Mrs. Harry Fiscus has been on the sick list.

FUNERALS FOR OLD SONOMA RESIDENTS

The funeral of the late John Battos last Sunday, prominent pioneer resident of Vineburg, was largely attended. Rev. Father Byrne in his service paid beautiful tribute to deceased and declared that the sorrowing concourse of friends which thronged the church proved the respect and esteem in which he was held. A wealth of floral beauty testified to the friendships made by the old Sonoma Valley resident during his long and useful life. The pallbearers were Frank Knolle, D. Colli, Frank Burris, Will Clewe, Walter Bundschu and A. Beretta. The remains were laid to rest in the splendid family vault of the Battos in Mountain cemetery.

The burial of William Durant was attended by a number of out of town relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheney of Sparks, Nevada; Clarence Cheney, of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. William Cheney of Jamestown, and Norman Cheney of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Revie, Mrs. Rockhold and others. The Rev. Meikle officiated. Many beautiful floral offerings, some from friends in Nevada, decorated the casket and the grave. Pallbearers were F. W. Dobbel, George Breitenbach, J. B. Parent, L. E. States, G. Seipp and R. E. Perkins.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB PRESENTS NEW FEATURE

The Sonoma Valley Improvement Club holds a whist party in the club house at Fetters, near Zwick's Garden, each Wednesday evening. Besides the card game there are refreshments and a social dance for all the same admission.

As an added attraction Mr. Northmore, president, announces that beginning Wednesday a special prize will be given every four weeks for the one making the highest score for four games. To qualify the player must attend four straight games and hand in their cards each night. Start your high score this Wednesday and step out on the first waltz.

FRENCH LAUNDRY IN NEW HOME NOV. 1st

The handsome building which is to be the permanent home of the Sonoma Pioneer French Laundry will be ready for occupancy very shortly. The announcement is made by Mr. Lembeve that the laundry will be in its new home by November 1st.

The enterprising and progressive business man has erected a plant which cannot be equaled north of the bay. The highest class facilities for good work at reasonable prices have been provided for and in addition the building is a magnificent improvement to the business district of Sonoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Lembeve are deserving of the support of the entire Sonoma Valley. They are industrious, progressive people who have faith in the community and are equipped to serve it. The price schedule given in the advertisement in this week's issue proves that the Sonoma laundry is very reasonable in price. Their high class work is too well known to be commented on here.

Laundry is something which is a daily and weekly necessity and if the money is spent in Sonoma for this work instead of being sent outside our community will prosper and proper encouragement be given to a splendid local enterprise.

MISS COPELAND GETS DECISION IN RANCH SUIT

Watt to Richard L. Watt, to be delivered at my death.

"Poppe deposited the deed in the Sonoma Valley Bank, handing it to Cashier Jesse Burris, with the statement: 'You hold this deed for safekeeping, to be delivered at the death of Mrs. Watt, unless she sees fit to call for it,' according to the testimony at the recent hearing of the case.

"In July, 1923, Mrs. Watt drew a will leaving her property to her cousins, Miss Rupe and Miss Copeland, the defendant in the action brought by Watt. Miss Copeland had lived with Mrs. Watt for 35 years. Later, Mrs. Watt sent Miss Copeland to the bank and secured a re-delivery of the deed. A new deed was made, giving the land to Miss Copeland. This deed was delivered and recorded.

"Since the transaction, both Mrs. Watt and Attorney Poppe have died and the only witness to the original transaction living is Jesse Burris, formerly cashier of the Sonoma Valley Bank, now out of existence.

"Testimony at the trial indicated that the deed had been deposited conditionally, and that Mrs. Watt didn't intend to relinquish control over the deed. It was shown that she had regained possession of the deed herself and destroyed it, and judgment was given for the defendant accordingly by Judge Thompson."

The land in which Miss Copeland is now half owner by decision of the court, is a highly improved orchard which Watt has cultivated for many years. During the lifetime of his aunt, a yearly rental was paid by Watt to her. He will now appeal the decision.

After the ceremony the bridal couple motored to the Oak Grove, Sonoma, where a most elaborate bridal repast was served and enjoyed by about 30 guests, the day being happily spent and the bride and groom being heartily felicitated while they also received many splendid gifts. The festivities lasted until late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Greifeld have taken possession of their new home in Petaluma which the groom recently purchased, remodeled and furnished in an elegant manner for his charming bride and there they will reside, the bridal trip being omitted as the bride has just arrived from a long journey as has the groom.

Improving on History

I just finished hearing a Politician, one of the Washington Boys, talk on Abraham Lincoln. The only thing I could picture in common between him and Lincoln was that they had both been in Washington. When a Politician aint talking about himself he is talking about Lincoln. Lincoln has had more Public men speak of his good qualities, and fewer copy any of them, than any man America ever produced. His famous address was only about two hundred words long. No Politician has ever been able to even copy his briefness. In fact that is the last one of his qualities that they would try to copy. Lincoln said more in those 200 words than has been said in the entire City of Washington in the last 10 years, and here is a quality that no historian or speaker has ever brought out before. At the completion of the Gettysburg speech, he wisely refused one of Grant's Cigars, and borrowed a sack of "Bull" Durham from an Ex Southern private, rolled his own, got on his Mule and went back to Washington.

HISTORIC MARKERS

PLACED AT BODEGA

The wealth of romance and history in which our Sonoma county is steeped was further recognized last Sunday when a loyal company of pilgrims led by Miss Honoria Tuomey of Bodega visited historic spots in that vicinity and placed markers to commemorate events of importance, including the discovery of Bodega Bay in 1775. The Native Sons of Sebastopol Parlor took charge of the ceremonies. Senator Slater and Honorable Rolfe Thompson of the Superior Court spoke very appropriately on this occasion.

The events commemorated included the arrival of the Spanish navigator, Lieutenant Juan Francisco de Bodega y Quadra in his majesty's ship "Sonora" in October, 1775; his exploration of the land and naming of Bodega Bay for himself. It will be recalled that some years later, in 1793, England menaced the port by the presence of a ship and Governor Arrillago constructed a fort at Bodega equipped with four cannon and built a road for military purposes. Spain finally abandoned the fort and moved the guns to Monterey, but Bodega made a strong appeal and attracted the Russians in 1811. A site where the flag pole was erected by the Russians was marked during last Sunday's ceremonies. The Russians occupied the Bodega country and Fort Ross for more than 30 years.

Alexander Koskoff, "Pie de Palo," he of the wooden leg, established the Russian colony in 1811, called Bodega Romanoff and the present Russian River Slavianska. The Russians were ordered to evacuate by the Spanish authorities, but they transmitted the ultimatum to the czar at St. Petersburg, and continued their extensive hunting and trapping operations under Koskoff, Klebrinkoff, Kostromitnoff and Rotskliff.

After the Spanish era Mexico dealt with the situation by establishing a military post here in Sonoma with General Vallejo as military commandante of the northern frontier. Vallejo coped with the Russians so successfully that they finally sold out to Captain Sutter, of Sutter's Fort, and left the country, abandoning all they had established. Captain Stephen Smith, of Massachusetts, was the first American to successfully pioneer the Bodega country. He was master of the bark "George and Henry," and saw the possibilities of Bodega bay and the redwood country back of it. A steam saw mill was established and industry ushered into Sonoma county in 1843. A marker was placed at this historic spot by the pilgrims. An adobe built by Captain Smith was also marked as was the little cemetery where the first Christianized Indians are buried.

A permanent monument is to be later placed on a promontory at Bodega to commemorate Lieutenant Bodega's voyage to Sonoma county.

Great credit is due Honoria Tuomey for preserving and honoring traditions in this section of California.

Oehler's estate is valued at $6,041.59, consisting of San Francisco and Glen Ellen real estate and personal property, while that of his wife, less her interest in her husband's estate, was worth $4,107.62. John P. Plover and William Schutt, the latter a son of Mrs. Oehler by her first marriage, were administrators of the estate. J. W. Ford is their attorney.

ANTI-PROHI LEADER TO ADDRESS MEETING

Anti-prohibition mass meetings in San Francisco, Sacramento, San Jose and Los Angeles to be addressed by Congressman John Philip Hill, of Maryland, leader of the congressional fight to modify the Volstead Act, will feature the Modification Jubilee Week which the California branches of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment are planning to start on November 2nd.

Announcement of Hill's visit and speaking itinerary during his stay in California, was made this week in the California Minute Man, official magazine of the anti-prohibition organization.

The San Francisco meeting will be held in the evening of November 4th, at the civic auditorium. "Make this meeting even more successful than was the historic gathering in the same place February 11, 1924," Editor Edward F. Wilbur writes in his appeal to members and friends of the association.

Hill's announced schedule is as follows:

Arrival in Los Angeles November 2nd, and speech at a mass meeting that evening. The following noon he will address a luncheon meeting of one of the civic clubs and leave for San Francisco that evening. A committee of officers and members of the wet organization will meet him at the train and he will be a guest of honor at a reception held that noon in a San Francisco hotel.

He will be the principal speaker that evening at the mass meeting in the auditorium and the following day will address one or more of the San Francisco civic organizations. He also is scheduled to address mass meetings in San Jose and Sacramento before leaving for the East November 7.

More than 15,000 friends of the modification movement are expected to hear Hill in San Francisco the evening of November 4th, according to the Minute Man. Dudley Field Malone and Captain W. H. Stayton, executive heads of the association drew a crowd which packed the auditorium, it was pointed out, at the former meeting in 1924.

"Congressman Hill's visit to California, at the behest of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, is perhaps the most notable achievement of the year," Wilbur writes in the Minute Man. "Hill is the leader of the modification fight in congress, he forced a decision on the Volstead Act concerning the manufacture of fruit juices which practically made the act inoperative as far as the making of wine for home consumption is concerned, and it is upon him that the burden of the drive to be made for modification by the coming congress will rest."

The committee in charge of the mass meeting arrangements consists of William H. Metson, Sylvester Andriano, Chauncey F. Tramutolo, John O'Connell, Charles F. Hannlon, Joseph J. Tynan and Mr. Wilbur.
